COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs, by and through their undersigned counsel, hereby allege:

1. Plaintiffs are the surviving spouses, children, parents, siblings and estate representatives of the victims murdered in the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks on the United States (the “September 11th Attacks”) and individuals who suffered personal injuries in the September 11th Attacks.

2. Plaintiffs bring this action against the defendant Kingdom of Saudi Arabia under the 2016 Justice Against Sponsors of Terrorism Act (JASTA), which Congress enacted over a Presidential veto to provide civil litigants with the broadest possible basis, consistent with the Constitution of the United States, to seek relief against...foreign countries, wherever acting and wherever they may be found, that have provided material support, directly or indirectly, to foreign organizations or persons that engage in terrorist activities against the United States...

28 U.S.C. §2333 note; as a result, JASTA establishes federal court jurisdiction over the tortious acts of a foreign state anywhere in the world that cause injury and death in a terrorist attack in the United States.

3. Plaintiffs seek such relief against the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia for the attributable acts of the Kingdom’s governmental Ministries and bodies, alter-egos, and officers, employees and agents acting within the scope of their office, employment or agency by knowingly providing material support and resources to the al Qaeda terrorist organization and facilitating the September 11th Attacks, in that, as set forth in detail herein, they:

- a. raised, laundered and paid substantial financial support to al Qaeda to fund its budget and terrorist activities, including the preparation and execution of the September 11th Attacks;
- b. funded the terrorist training camps in Afghanistan where al Qaeda indoctrinated and taught their hijackers the skills they used to carry out the September 11th Attacks;
- c. provided critical logistical support and resources to al Qaeda around the world, funding safe houses, furnishing false passport and travel documents, transferring al Qaeda money, weapons and equipment across international borders and other assistance, all of which enabled al Qaeda to conduct the September 11th Attacks;
- d. actively supported al Qaeda in its final preparations for the September 11th Attacks through a network of the Kingdom's officers, employees and/or agents who met with and aided the hijackers, providing them with money, cover, advice, contacts, transportation, assistance with language and U.S. culture, identification, access to pilot training and other material support and resources.

4. The defendant Kingdom of Saudi Arabia is a foreign state within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. §1603(a), and "Saudi Arabia" as used hereinafter refers to the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, its government Ministries and other bodies (including but not limited to its Ministry of Islamic Affairs, Ministry of the Interior, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Embassies throughout the world), its alter-egos, and its officials, employees, or agents not only in the United States but throughout the world, while acting within the scope of their office, employment, or agency.

5. The defendant Kingdom of Saudi Arabia is subject to jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1330 and JASTA's 28 U.S.C. §1605B, in that, as set forth in detail below, this action: seeks money damages against the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia for injury and death caused by the September 11th Attacks, which constitute an act of "international terrorism" in the United States as defined in 18 U.S.C. §2331; alleges that the September 11th Attacks and the resulting injuries and deaths were caused by a tortious act or acts of Saudi Arabia, by providing material support and resources to and facilitating the al Qaeda leaders, planners and hijackers responsible for the September 11th Attacks, and that such act or acts constitute more than mere negligence, and were intentional, knowing, reckless, willful and/or grossly negligent.

6. The defendant Kingdom of Saudi Arabia is also subject to jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1330 and 28 U.S.C. §1605(a)(5), in that, as set forth in detail below, this action seeks money damages against the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia for injury and death occurring in the United States and caused by the tortious act or omission of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and/or one or more of its officials or employees acting within the scope of their office or employment.

7. Venue in this District is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§1391(b)(2) and 1391(f)(1), as a substantial part of the events giving rise to this litigation occurred within this District, as well as 28 U.S.C. §2334(a).

8. The plaintiffs who are the estate representatives of a decedent are listed as such in the caption, have been duly appointed by a court prior to the commencement of this action and have the legal authority to bring this action to recover the damages set forth herein, including wrongful death damages on behalf of all legally entitled beneficiaries of the decedent and survival damages for the decedent's personal injuries.

9. For years prior to and on September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia established, owned, operated and controlled a series of state-run “charity” organizations, namely

- the Muslim World League (MWL),
- the International Islamic Relief Organization (IIRO),
- the Rabita Trust,
- the World Assembly of Muslim Youth (WAMY),
- the Benevolence International Foundation (BIF),
- the al Haramain Islamic Foundation (AHIF),
- the Saudi High Commission for Relief of Bosnia and Herzegovina (SHC),
- the Saudi Joint Relief Committee for Kosovo and Albania (SJRC), and
- the Saudi Red Crescent (SRC), and these organizations are referred to hereinafter as “Saudi Arabia’s charity organizations” and, as further described herein, each of these organizations (i) were so closely related to Saudi Arabia that they must be considered as part of Saudi Arabia, and/or (ii) were government agents of Saudi Arabia and/or (iii) were alter-egos of Saudi Arabia, because Saudi Arabia: established, controlled, operated and regulated each organization through its King, Council of Ministers, the Supreme Council of Islamic Affairs, the Council of Senior Ulema, Ministry of Islamic Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, other Ministries and bodies and Saudi Arabia’s Embassies throughout the world; maintained significant, repeated and extensive control of the day-to-day operations of each organization; provided each organization with virtually all of its funding and determined how its funds were distributed; established guidelines, plans and policies that each organization was required to follow; appointed Saudi Arabia officials and employees to the lead positions within each organization; staffed each organization with Saudi Arabia’s officials and employees; hired, fired and directed each organization’s officers and employees; required each organization to obtain its approval for ordinary business decisions, including purchases, the locations of its operations and offices, banking, budgeting and grant decisions; used each organization's personnel and property as its own; ignored the separate legal status, if any, of each organization; treated each organization as a part of Saudi Arabia; used each organization to perform its core governmental functions, including foreign affairs and the advancement of Saudi Arabia's state religion of Wahhabism throughout the world; and operated, controlled and used each organization in such a manner that it would work a fraud or injustice to regard the organization as a legal entity separate from Saudi Arabia.

Saudi Arabia's knowledge of al Qaeda and its terrorist agenda against the United States prior to September 11, 2001

10. In 1986-89, Saudi Arabia's MWL, IIRO, WAMY, BIF, SRC and AHIF collaborated with Osama Bin Laden to open offices in Pakistan and Afghanistan as a means to establish al Qaeda and provide material support and resources for its terrorist operations, and a top ranking Saudi Arabia official together with other officials, employees and agents of Saudi Arabia joined in this effort including:

- SRC Director-Pakistan Wael Jelaidan, a close friend and schoolmate of Osama Bin Laden, who along with the SRC's Aqeel Abdulaziz al Aqeel, founded the AHIF in Pakistan in 1988 as a division of the SRC and in 1989 took charge of the MWL/IIRO office in Pakistan;
- MWL's Mohamed Khalifa, Osama Bin Laden's brother-in-law, who established the offices of the MWL and IIRO in Peshawar, Pakistan in 1986 using funds provided by Osama Bin Laden, pursuant to the instructions of Abdullah Naseef, then MWL's Secretary General;
- WAMY's Adel Batterjee, a close friend of Osama Bin Laden who in 1988-89 established the operations of the WAMY and BIF (then called Lajnat al Bir al Islamiyah, or LBI) in Pakistan;
- a top ranking Saudi Arabia official who controlled the Afghan Jihad Support Committee and used it to provide funding for al Qaeda through the various charities, in conjunction with a 1988 speech of Osama Bin Laden in Saudi Arabia that solicited contributions to that Committee;

- MWL's Naseef, who met at MWL's office in Peshawar, Pakistan in 1988 with Osama Bin Laden and discussed how the MWL could provide operational support for al Qaeda, including but not limited to using MWL's offices as a base for al Qaeda operations and providing covert assistance to al Qaeda operatives to cross international borders; and with the material support and resources provided by Saudi Arabia's officials, employees and agents, and its MWL, IIRO, WAMY, BIF, SRC and AHIF, Osama Bin Laden, Wael Jelaidan, Mohamed Khalifa, Abdullah Naseef, Adel Batterjee and others founded al Qaeda in Pakistan in late 1988 - early 1989.

11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Saudi Arabia: adopted an extremist version of Islam, Wahhabism, as the state religion; declared that its propagation was a core function of the state; and, sought to advance it around the world through Saudi Arabia's Ministry of Islamic Affairs, Embassies, Saudi Arabia's charity organizations and other government agents.

12. As detailed herein, Saudi Arabia knew from at least the early 1990s that al Qaeda had begun to pursue and carry out terrorist attacks against the United States, and used Wahhabism to justify its campaign of anti-American violence, but Saudi Arabia's charitable organizations and Saudi Arabia's officials, employees and agents continued to provide material support and resources for al Qaeda through and including September 11, 2001.

13. From 1988 to 1990, Saudi Arabia knew that Osama Bin Laden made public speeches at his family's mosque in Jeddah and other locations in Saudi Arabia where he declared that the United States was the primary target of al Qaeda; as an example, in 1990 he stated that:

The Americans won't stop their support of Jews in Palestine until we give them a lot of blows. They won't stop until we do jihad against them.

14. For years prior to September 11, 2001, as further detailed herein, Saudi Arabia, including but not limited to its Embassies, its Ministry of Islamic Affairs, its Ministry of the Interior and Saudi Arabia's charity organizations, had a relationship and communications with Osama Bin Laden and al Qaeda's operatives, associates and activities throughout the world.

15. For at least a decade prior to and on September 11, 2001, as detailed herein, Saudi Arabia knew that numerous officials, employees and agents of Saudi Arabia were al Qaeda operatives or sympathizers who actively supported al Qaeda's terrorist agenda against the United States.

16. For years prior to and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia's passport offices and authorities applied a secret marker/indicator to the passports of persons who had known ties to al Qaeda, and this marker/indicator was found in the passports of at least three of the 19 hijackers responsible for the September 11th Attacks, including Nawaf al Hazmi and Khalid al Mihdhar, and others who assisted them, including Omar al Bayoumi, a Saudi Arabia employee and agent who aided the hijackers in 2000-2001 in California, as detailed herein, and information about this marker/indicator was not known by United States consular officers, immigration or law enforcement agencies.

17. For at least a decade prior to and on September 11, 2001, as detailed herein, Saudi Arabia had knowledge of the violent goals of al Qaeda and its leader Osama Bin Laden to wage terrorist attacks against the United States and its citizens and that al Qaeda had engaged in numerous terrorist attacks and attempted attacks against United States targets.

18. For at least a decade prior to and on September 11, 2001, support for al Qaeda's terrorist agenda against the United States was pervasive among officials and employees of Saudi Arabia, and Saudi Arabia was duplicitous: it presented a public face to the United States and other Western countries of a nation fighting al Qaeda and terrorism while at the same time, as detailed herein, Saudi government actors gave al Qaeda substantial material support and resources.

19. For many years prior to and on September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia knew of many attempts by al Qaeda to conduct terrorist attacks directed against the United States, including the December 1992 attempt by al Qaeda to attack the United States by bombing two hotels in Sanaa, Yemen where al Qaeda thought U.S. military personnel were staying.

20. On or shortly after February 26, 1993, Saudi Arabia knew that terrorists affiliated with al Qaeda exploded a truck bomb in the parking garage of the World Trade Center in New York City, with the intent to topple one of the towers into the other, resulting in 6 deaths and over 1,000 injuries.

21. In or about October 1993, Saudi Arabia knew that al Qaeda was involved in the attack on U.S. military forces in Somalia that resulted in 18 deaths and numerous injuries to U.S. soldiers.

22. From at least early in 1995, Saudi Arabia knew of an al Qaeda plan to attack the United States called the “Bojinka” plot to simultaneously bomb 10 or more commercial aircraft operated by United States carriers over the Pacific and that al Qaeda did a test run of that plot on December 11, 1994, when it bombed a Philippine Airlines flight, killing one passenger and injuring numerous others.

23. From at least 1996 through and on September 11, 2001, the United States shared with Saudi Arabia specific information about the threat of al Qaeda terrorist attacks against the United States, including the specific threat of hijacking by al Qaeda of commercial aircraft operated by U.S. carriers.

24. Specifically, from the first half of 1996 through and including September 11, 2001, the United States urgently told Saudi Arabia that it needed background and financial information and other assistance regarding al Qaeda's leader Osama Bin Laden in order to disrupt or interdict the threat of al Qaeda terrorist attacks against the United States and its nationals.

25. In May 1996, Saudi Arabia knew that Osama Bin Laden had to move al Qaeda's base of operations from Sudan to Afghanistan and that Osama Bin Laden's flight from Sudan to Afghanistan received air traffic control services and clearance from Saudi Arabia to overfly its territory.

26. In August 1996, Saudi Arabia knew that al Qaeda through its leader Osama Bin Laden declared and publicized a fatwa for jihad urging the use of terrorism to attack the United States and United States citizens.

27. From 1996 through and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia knew that the Taliban rulers in Afghanistan were providing a safe haven for al Qaeda, Osama Bin Laden and their terrorist operations, including the Afghan terrorist training camps and safe houses described herein.

28. In February 1998, Saudi Arabia knew that al Qaeda through its leader Osama Bin Laden declared and publicized a second fatwa for jihad urging the use of terrorism to attack the United States and its nationals in all nations throughout the world.

29. For at least one year prior to and including August 7, 1998, Saudi Arabia's AHIF knew that al Qaeda was planning to conduct a terrorist attack against the United States Embassies in Kenya and Tanzania, and had specific information that the planned attack against the U.S. Embassy in Kenya would be a suicide bombing carried out by crashing a vehicle into the Embassy gate and Saudi Arabia's AHIF and IIRO provided material support and resources to al Qaeda to carry out the attack.

30. On or shortly after August 7, 1998, Saudi Arabia knew that al Qaeda carried out the twin suicide bombing attacks of the United States Embassies in Kenya and Tanzania that resulted in over 200 deaths.

31. On or shortly after August 20, 1998, Saudi Arabia knew that President Clinton issued Executive Order 13099, defining al Qaeda and its leader Osama Bin Laden as terrorists because of their role in the U.S. Embassy bombings and ordered the U.S. military to conduct a cruise missile strike to destroy al Qaeda terrorist bases in Afghanistan.

32. On or shortly after October 8, 1999, Saudi Arabia knew, from public announcements made by the U.S. government and other sources, that al Qaeda was formally designated by the U.S. Secretary of State under section 219 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. §1189, as a Foreign Terrorist Organization, and Saudi Arabia subsequently knew that the designation of al Qaeda as a Foreign Terrorist Organization remained in force from October 1999 through and including September 11, 2001.

33. In or shortly after December 1999, Saudi Arabia knew that al Qaeda prepared and attempted to execute a "millennium" bomb attack on the United States, planned for January 1, 2000 at the Los Angeles International Airport, but was thwarted by U.S. and Canadian authorities.

34. On or shortly after October 12, 2000, Saudi Arabia knew that al Qaeda bombed the U.S.S. Cole while it was being refueled in Yemen, resulting in 17 deaths and numerous injuries to U.S. Navy sailors.

35. From May 2001 to September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia knew that the United States made urgent requests for assistance from Saudi Arabia concerning an individual in Saudi Arabia who was in contact with a senior al Qaeda operational coordinator concerning an upcoming al Qaeda terrorist attack against the United States; a high level U.S. government officer later stated that had those requests been heeded, the September 11th Attacks could have been avoided.

II.
Saudi Arabia's tortious acts were a proximate cause of the September 11th Attacks

36. The planning for the September 11th Attacks began in 1996 with initial discussions among al Qaeda members of the feasibility of hijacking planes and crashing them into landmarks in the United States and Osama Bin Laden's suggestion that large passenger aircraft be used as the mode of attack; between 1997 and 1999, al Qaeda reconnaissance teams travelled to the U.S. to look at potential targets; in November 1999, a "dry run" was conducted on a U.S. passenger flight to test cockpit security; during 1999 and 2000, the hijackers were recruited by al Qaeda, mainly in Saudi Arabia, and then indoctrinated and trained at various terrorist camps in Afghanistan; in January 2000, the first two hijackers arrived in the United States, and in 2000 and 2001 additional hijackers came to the United States, received flight training and made their final preparations, and then assembled in September 2001 to conduct the attacks.

37. On September 11, 2001, the 19 al Qaeda hijackers violently broke into the cockpits of four commercial airliners and piloted those planes as weapons in a coordinated terrorist attack on the United States and its citizens, flying two planes into the World Trade Center Towers in New York and a third plane into the Pentagon in Virginia; the fourth plane crashed in Shanksville, Pennsylvania as the passengers fought with the hijackers over control of the aircraft and thwarted their plans to destroy the U.S. Capitol or White House.

38. As detailed herein, at each stage of al Qaeda's planning and execution leading up to the September 11th Attacks, Saudi Arabia knowingly provided al Qaeda with support, financing and resources that were material, substantial and critical to the success of the September 11th Attacks.

A. Saudi Arabia's direct funding of al Qaeda

39. During the decade prior to and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia was responsible for substantial funding of al Qaeda that was vital to the operation of that terrorist organization and its preparations for and realization of the September 11th Attacks, including but not limited to the following:

- a. Saudi Arabia's MWL, IIRO, Rabita Trust, WAMY, BIF, AHIF, SJC, SHC and SRC made substantial financial contributions to al Qaeda, as confirmed by U.S., French, German, Swiss and Saudi Arabia government reports, United Nations reports, the statement of al Qaeda's Zacarias Moussaoui and other sources;
- b. top ranking Saudi Arabia officials made substantial financial contributions to al Qaeda;
- c. from 1995 through and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia, acting through its employees and agents, including Khalid al Suwailem, a diplomat and senior official of the Ministry of Islamic Affairs at the Saudi Arabia Embassy in Washington, D.C. and Omar Abdi Mohamed, employed by Saudi Arabia's Ministry of Islamic Affairs with the job title of "Propagator":

fraudulently sought and obtained a visa for Mohamed to enter the United States as a “religious worker” and intentionally disguised the fact that Mohamed was a Saudi Arabia employee; had Mohamed form and operate the Western Somali Relief Agency (WSRA), a California non-profit corporation in San Diego, California; and, used WSRA in a scheme to send substantial funds to al Qaeda;

d. from 1998 through and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia, acting through its aforesaid employees and agents of Saudi Arabia’s Ministry of Islamic Affairs: (i) fraudulently obtained and/or maintained 26 U.S.C. §501(c)(3) charitable status for WSRA from the Internal Revenue Service, despite the fact that WSRA never performed any charitable acts; (ii) used WSRA to receive money from various sources affiliated with al Qaeda, including but not limited to the AHIF, and (iii) had WSRA send over $350,000 to al Qaeda, via Dahab Shil, a money transfer agency used by al Qaeda, including but not limited to the Dahab Shil office in Karachi, Pakistan, which was founded, staffed and controlled by al Qaeda;

e. during the same time period that Saudi Arabia’s employees and agents sent over $350,000 via WSRA to al Qaeda, including through the Dahab Shil office in Karachi, Pakistan, Khalid Sheikh Mohamed, the mastermind of the September 11th attacks, was located in Karachi and was handing and sending a total of approximately $400,000 in cash to the hijackers which constituted the primary funding for the September 11th Attacks;

f. from 1998 through and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia, acting through its employees and agents, including but not limited to

Fahad al Thumairy, funded al Qaeda by sending substantial sums of money from Saudi Arabia through the King Fahad Mosque, also known as the Ibn Tamiyah Mosque, in Culver City, California, to al Qaeda, or through various organizations, individuals and/or private businesses, including but not limited to charities and/or other businesses, to al Qaeda;

g. from 1998 through and including September 11, 2001, Fahad al Thumairy: (i) was an accredited diplomat working at Saudi Arabia's Los Angeles Consulate for Saudi Arabia's Ministry of Islamic Affairs; (ii) reported to more senior officials of Saudi Arabia's Ministry of Islamic Affairs at Saudi Arabia's Embassy in Washington, D.C.; (iii) had been selected for his job in Los Angeles by Saudi Arabia's Head of Islamic Affairs in Washington, D.C.; and (iv) was an extremist Imam at the King Fahad Mosque, which was founded and funded by Saudi Arabia;

h. from 1998 through and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia funded al Qaeda by sending substantial sums of money through the Islamic Center of San Diego, or through various organizations, individuals and/or private businesses, including but not limited to U.S.-based Somali charities and/or other businesses, to al Qaeda;

i. Saudi Arabia hired and paid employees and agents, including Omar al-Bayoumi and Osama Basnan, who Saudi Arabia knew were al Qaeda operatives and/or sympathizers and who provided al Qaeda with substantial assistance to prepare for the September 11th Attacks;

j. Bayoumi was employed by Saudi Arabia from the 1970s, and starting in 1995 through and including September 11, 2001, he was assigned by Saudi Arabia to work in San Diego and was compensated by Saudi Arabia through various “ghost jobs” that Bayoumi never actually performed;

k. in 2000, Bayoumi had a ghost job as a “Senior DSS Programmer” and Saudi Arabia was paying him $3,000 per month when, as detailed herein, he was instructed by two officials from Saudi Arabia’s Ministry of Islamic Affairs to provide substantial assistance for two al Qaeda hijackers in California, and Saudi Arabia paid Bayoumi an additional $4,000 per month, categorized as “Other Allowances,” that was tied to his work to assist those hijackers and raised his total compensation to $7,000 per month from April 2000 through September 2001, after which that additional monthly payment ended and his compensation reverted to $3,000 per month;

l. Basnan, who also provided material support and services to the hijackers in California, as detailed herein, received approximately $75,000 in a series of transfers from the Riggs Bank account of the Saudi Arabia Embassy in Washington, D.C. from 1998 through September 2001, including $25,000 paid by the Embassy to Basnan and his wife in 1998 that was reimbursed to the Embassy by Yasin Kadi, a known al Qaeda financial operative, who wired the Embassy $25,000 in May 1998 from his Swiss bank account;

m. from the late 1990s through and including September 11, 2001, Ahmed al Dubayan and Mohamed Jaber Hassan Fakihi, working for Saudi Arabia’s Ministry of Islamic Affairs in Germany and acting in the course and scope of their jobs for Saudi Arabia as Head of its Islamic Affairs Office at the Saudi Arabia Embassy in Bonn and/or Berlin, provided substantial funds of approximately $800,000 from the Saudi Embassy to support al Qaeda in Germany, including the al Nur Mosque in Berlin;

n. in addition, Dubayan, Fakihi and the Ministry of Islamic Affairs arranged for the AHIF, with the approval and direct involvement of AHIF's General Director, Aqeel Abdulaziz al Aqeel, to provide funds in excess of $1,000,000 to support al Qaeda through the al Nur Mosque;

o. the funds were paid by Saudi Arabia's Embassy and the AHIF to the al Nur Mosque at the specific instructions of al Qaeda operatives and Osama Bin Laden; that Mosque was frequented by members of the Hamburg al Qaeda cell led by Mohamed Atta that coordinated and carried out the September 11th Attacks; and, U.S. authorities concluded that Fakihi was "more than just a sympathizer of bin Laden" and was "organizationally involved" with al Qaeda;

p. from 1996 through and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia funded al Qaeda's recruitment efforts in Germany by sending money to individuals, organizations and/or businesses there, including but not limited to al Qaeda financial operative Mamoun Darkazanli, Darkazanli Import Export and Abdelfatah Zammar, and those funds underwrote the recruitment by Mamoun Darkazanli, Abdelfatah Zammar and Mohamed Zammar at the al Quds Mosque in Hamburg, Germany of the Hamburg al Qaeda cell members that participated in the September 11th Attacks, including hijackers Mohamed Atta, Ziad Jarrah and

q. starting in 2000 through and including September 11, 2001, AHIF collected over $1,000,000 for al Qaeda from donors in Saudi Arabia and instructed AHIF's employee and/or agent Abdulaziz Abdulrahman al Baddah to send those funds to al Qaeda via the Dahab Shil office in Karachi, Pakistan and Al Wafa Humanitarian Organization in Pakistan;

r. from 1988 through and including September 11, 2001, senior managers of Saudi Arabia's IIRO, through its office in Pakistan, laundered and diverted IIRO funds to al Qaeda and used false distribution lists of orphan beneficiaries in Afghanistan as a subterfuge to direct funds to al Qaeda, as confirmed by Jamal al Fadl, an al Qaeda defector, and senior officials at the headquarters offices of the MWL and IIRO were aware that IIRO funds were being diverted to al Qaeda in 1994, if not sooner, yet the practice continued;

s. the IIRO's funding of al Qaeda was further confirmed by a 2001 Ernst & Young accounting investigation, which reviewed IIRO records from 1996-2001 and detailed numerous serious discrepancies in IIRO's financial statements and accounts, including but not limited to that: over half of the funds transferred from IIRO's headquarters could not be accounted for; over $3 million of expenditures could not be explained; about $250,000 purportedly spent on aid to Afghan orphans went missing; signatures on financial documents were faked or forged; invoices for construction were falsified; and, funds were sent to fictitious companies created by IIRO directors;

t. from 1993 through 1998, Saudi Arabia's IIRO funded al Qaeda by sending approximately $500,000 from the IIRO to the IIRO's endowment arm, Sana-Bell, administered by the IIRO's Suliman al Ali, for a purported real estate project in Fort Washington, MD, managed by Soliman Biheiri, and all or the large majority of that money, along with contributions made by Osama Bin Laden's mother and sisters, Abdullah Bin Laden, Osama Bin Laden's nephew, Yasin Kadi, an al Qaeda operative, and others, altogether totaling approximately $2 million, went missing, and Biheiri's accountant told the FBI that funds were transferred overseas to al Qaeda, or through various organizations, individuals and/or private businesses to al Qaeda, and Biheiri was tried in the Eastern District of Virginia and convicted on federal charges for passport fraud and making false official statements to obstruct a terrorism investigation;

u. from 2000 through and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia's WAMY funded al Qaeda by sending over $50,000 to WAMY's account in Canada which was channeled through BIF's orphan program in Afghanistan to al Qaeda, or through various organizations, individuals and/or private businesses to al Qaeda, and less than 25% of the funding for BIF's orphan program was actually used for orphans;

v. in 1996-1999, under the pretext of doing construction work in Bosnia, Saudi Arabia's SHC funneled hundreds of thousands of dollars to al Qaeda through companies established by al Qaeda operatives Wael Jelaidan, Yasin Kadi and Shafiq Ayadi, who were later designated by the United States as

Specially Designated Global Terrorists because of their activities to support al Qaeda for the decade prior to the September 11th Attacks;

w. from 1998 through and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia created the SJRC and appointed Wael Jelaidan, a Saudi Arabia employee since 1985 and former Director of the MWL, as its Executive Director, despite the fact that Saudi Arabia knew that Jelaidan was an active al Qaeda operative and one of the founders of al Qaeda;

x. Jelaidan proceeded to use his position as SJRC Executive Director in Albania and Kosovo to provide financial and logistical support to al Qaeda through businesses in Albania that were owned and operated by (i) Yasin Kadi, a known al Qaeda financial operative, (ii) Abdelatif Saleh, a known al Qaeda operative and financial supporter with ties to Osama Bin Laden and (iii) Jelaidan himself;

y. in September 1999, Jelaidan was declared as an “undesirable” by Albania and ordered to leave the country because of his links to a 1998 al Qaeda terrorist plot against the U.S. Embassy in Albania, yet after his expulsion Saudi Arabia continued to retain Jelaidan as SJRC’s Executive Director, and Jelaidan was invited to join top ranking Saudi Arabia officials on Saudi Arabia government business trips;

z. in 1997-2000, Saudi Arabia’s BIF sent approximately $80,000 to al Qaeda through a front company named Maram, in Istanbul, Turkey, ostensibly a trading company, that was founded, owned and run by al Qaeda, through its operatives Mahmdou Salim (also a BIF employee), Wael Jelaidan and Mohamed Bayazid (BIF's President);

aa. in or around February 2000, Saudi Arabia's AHIF sent approximately $150,000 to al Qaeda through a money laundering scheme whereby funds were received by the AHIF in its U.S. bank account and then withdrawn from that account and illegally carried out of the U.S. in the form of cash and traveler's checks by Soliman al Buthe, a senior member of the Saudi government for the city of Riyadh, an AHIF officer and President of AHIF in the U.S., and then distributed through various channels to al Qaeda;

bb. in the late 1980s, Saudi Arabia's MWL sent its employee and agent Mohamed Khalifa, Osama Bin Laden's brother-in-law, to found a MWL/IIRO office in the Philippines and thereafter in or around 1994, money from Saudi Arabia's IIRO through its Philippines' office was used to fund an al Qaeda affiliated terrorist cell headed by Ramzi Yousef, the 1993 World Trade Center bomber, to carry out terrorist attacks against the United States, including the 1995 Bojinka plot and its test run, the December 1994 Philippine Airlines bombing, which were forerunners of the September 11th Attacks;

cc. following the September 11th Attacks, the United States formally declared in Exec. Order No. 13224 (as issued in 2001 and updated in 2001, 2002, 2004, 2006 and 2008) that all or portions of four of Saudi Arabia's charity organizations, namely the AHIF, IIRO, Rabita Trust and BIF, and numerous employees of Saudi Arabia's charity organizations, including Wael Jelaidan (MWL, IIRO, SRC, SJRC, Rabita Trust), Abdelhamid al Mujil (IIRO), Soliman al

Buthe (AHIF), Aqeel al Aqeel (AHIF), Adel Batterjee (WAMY, BIF), Enaam Arnaout (MWL, WAMY, BIF) were Specially Designated Global Terrorists, based on the material support and resources they provided to al Qaeda prior to the September 11th Attacks; and

dd. prior to and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia funded al Qaeda in additional ways, as will be determined through further investigation, disclosures and discovery of Saudi Arabia.

B. Saudi Arabia's material support of the Afghan terrorist training camps used to indoctrinate and provide terrorist training for the 19 hijackers

40. Each of the 19 hijackers and others involved in supporting the September 11th Attacks were indoctrinated and given their terrorist training necessary to prepare for and execute the September 11th Attacks at one or more al Qaeda terrorist training camps located in Afghanistan, hereinafter called the "Afghan terrorist training camps", including:

- "Al Farouq 1" (hijackers Nawaf al Hazmi and Khalid al Mihdhar);
- "Al Farouq 2" (hijackers Abdelaziz al Omari, Ahmed al Ghamdi, Ahmed al Haznawi, Ahmed al Nami, Fayeze Banihammad, Hamza al Ghamdi, Hani Hanjour, Mohand Shehri, Salem al Hazmi, Sayid al Ghamdi, Wail al Shehri and Walid al Shehri);
- "Khalden" (hijackers Khalid al Mihdhar, Majed al Moqed, Satam al Suqami);
- "al Matar" (hijackers Abdelaziz al Omari, Ahmed al Ghamdi, Ahmed al Haznawi, Ahmed al Nami, Fayeze Banihammad, Hamza al Ghamdi, Mohand Shehri, Salem al Hazmi, Sayid al Ghamdi, Wail al Shehri and Walid al Shehri);
- "Mes Aynak" (hijackers Nawaf al Hazmi and Khalid al Mihdhar); and
- "Tarnak Farms" (hijackers Ziad Jarrah, Mohamed Atta and Marwan al Shehhi).

41. Those Afghan terrorist training camps provided training to the 19 hijackers in various skills that they used to execute the September 11th Attacks, including aircraft hijacking, discipline, hand-to-hand combat, weaponry (including the use of knives and blades to murder), hostage taking, religious indoctrination, English language skills and U.S. culture.

42. For years prior to and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia's IIRO, AHIF and MWL provided substantial funding and other material support for the Afghan terrorist training camps attended by the 19 hijackers in Afghanistan, including but not limited to the following:

- a. Saudi Arabia's IIRO was the principal source of funding and other material support to establish and operate the Afghan terrorist training camps, as confirmed by:
  - i. a 1996 C.I.A. report, which stated that the IIRO funded six terrorist training camps in Afghanistan;
  - ii. a 2003 report by the United Nations Security Council, which stated that "IIRO funds directly supported six Al-Qaida training camps in Afghanistan prior to September 11";
  - iii. a 2004 U.S. State Department cable, which described the IIRO as "the principal sponsor of terrorist training camps in Afghanistan during the Taliban regime", i.e. from 1996 through and including September 11, 2001;
  - iv. a 2003 report which stated that an IIRO employee, Abu Nasir, was informed by his superiors in the 1990s that approximately 40 to 50 percent of IIRO's charitable funds was being diverted to finance terrorist training camps in Afghanistan and Kashmir;
  - v. a January 2001 French intelligence report;
  - vi. the statement of Zacarias Moussaoui;
  - vii. U.S. reports regarding the September 11th Attacks which tied the IIRO to funding of the Afghan training camps; and
  - viii. in 2001 through and including September 11, 2001, at least one IIRO employee was also a trainer at the Afghan terrorist training camps;

- b. Saudi Arabia's AHIF provided major funding to establish and operate the Afghan training camps, as confirmed by:
  - i. the statement of Zacarias Moussaoui;
  - ii. U.S. reports regarding the September 11th Attacks tied the AHIF to funding of the Afghan training camps; and
  - iii. in the 1990s through and including September 11, 2001, a representative of Saudi Arabia's AHIF in Belgium was a recruiter for al Qaeda Afghan terrorist training camps;
- c. the MWL, IIRO and AHIF paid for transportation for al Qaeda operatives to attend the Afghan terrorist training camps;
- d. the MWL, IIRO and AHIF paid for building materials and electrical supplies necessary to construct the Afghan terrorist training camps; and
- e. the MWL, IIRO and AHIF funded and provided material support for the Afghan terrorist training camps in additional ways, as will be determined through further investigation, disclosures and discovery of Saudi Arabia.

C. Saudi Arabia's logistical support of al Qaeda

43. During the decade prior to and including September 11, 2001, and during the period that al Qaeda was actively planning the September 11th Attacks, Saudi Arabia provided material logistical support and resources to al Qaeda, including, but not limited to the following:

- a. U.S. State Department officials concluded that Osama Bin Laden "used the entire IIRO network for his terrorist activities";
- b. in the late 1990s through and including September 11, 2001, the office and guesthouse of Saudi Arabia's IIRO in Kandahar, Afghanistan was operated as a way-station and safe house for al Qaeda operatives travelling to the Afghan terrorist training camps;

c. in or around October 1998 through and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia announced that it closed its Embassy/Ambassador's residence in Kabul, Afghanistan (following al Qaeda's bombings of U.S. Embassies in Tanzania and Kenya) and thereafter, the Director of the AHIF in Afghanistan was instructed by "Riyadh" (the capital city of Saudi Arabia and location of the headquarters office of Saudi Arabia's AHIF) to open an office at that Embassy/Ambassador's residence; and, the AHIF operated such an office and provided material support and resources to al Qaeda through that office;

d. in or around October 1998 through and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia's Embassy/Ambassador's residence in Kabul was used as a "guesthouse", i.e. safe house, by al Qaeda; and, Osama Bin Laden and numerous other al Qaeda operatives, likely including several of the 19 hijackers, stayed at that safe house;

e. from 1998 through and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia provided funding and military equipment to the Taliban, including through Saudi Arabia's charity organizations, including but not limited to the AHIF, to support the use of Afghanistan as a safe haven for al Qaeda;

f. from 1998 through and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia facilitated and provided support and services for the Taliban controlled airline, Afghan Ariana Airlines, to conduct flights between Afghanistan and Saudi Arabia which Saudi Arabia knew were being conducted as a supply service for al Qaeda to shuttle guns, money and al Qaeda recruits and operatives to Afghanistan;

g. prior to and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia Embassy diplomats in Bosnia coordinated financial support from Saudi Arabia's AHIF to al Qaeda operatives;

h. in 1997 through and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia's AHIF operated a program in Azerbaijan that provided training for AHIF employees in money laundering techniques to fund al Qaeda using bank accounts, money transfer companies and cash couriers and those employees were then deployed to Pakistan and used those money laundering techniques to receive funds from the AHIF in Saudi Arabia and send those funds to al Qaeda in Pakistan and Afghanistan, as described herein;

i. from 1998 through and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia's BIF, assisted al Qaeda and Osama Bin Laden with the procurement and transport of materials and weapons, and the transfer of al Qaeda funds, including via the use of "front companies" in various countries, including but not limited to Sudan, Turkey and the U.A.E.;

j. Saudi Arabia's state-run Imam Muhammad Ibn Saud Islamic University ("Imam University") employed numerous instructors who were al Qaeda operatives or sympathizers, recruited and indoctrinated its students to join al Qaeda, and at least five of the 19 hijackers responsible for the September 11th Attacks, together with other al Qaeda operatives who attended Imam University, were likely recruited as al Qaeda operatives by Saudi Arabia's employees and agents;

k. in or around July 2001, Saudi Arabia's passport office and authorities issued a passport under a false name to Khalid Sheikh Mohamed, a Pakistani citizen who worked with and for al Qaeda to plan, carry out and mastermind the September 11th Attacks;

l. from 1996 through and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia assisted various of its employees and agents who provided material support and resources to al Qaeda for the September 11th Attacks to obtain fraudulent visas to enter the United States, in violation of federal law, and failed to advise U.S. officials, including the U.S. Attorney General, that the employees and agents were working for Saudi Arabia inside the United States, in violation of federal law, including but not limited to the following:

- Omar Abdi Mohamed, who first entered the U.S. on a fraudulent religious worker visa in 1995, and did not declare that he was actually working for Saudi Arabia, and was ultimately prosecuted, convicted and deported from the United States in 2006 for those false statements;
- Omar al Bayoumi, who repeatedly entered the U.S. on a student visa for several years prior to and including 1999-2000, even though he was not attending school, was collecting salary for a "ghost job" while actually working for Saudi Arabia, and provided material support and resources for the al Qaeda hijackers, as described herein;
- Osama Basnan, who entered the U.S. on a tourist visa in 1996, when he was working for Saudi Arabia, and provided material support and resources for the al Qaeda hijackers, as described herein, and did not leave the U.S. until August 2002, after he was convicted for visa fraud and deported;

m. Saudi Arabia's passport offices and authorities provided al Qaeda operatives, including several of the 19 hijackers involved in the September 11th Attacks, with new, "cleansed" passports to allow them to travel and obtain visas without suspicion, including but not limited to removing references to travel through Pakistan to the Afghan terrorist training camps;

n. Saudi Arabia's SRC, MWL, IIRO, WAMY and/or AHIF provided Osama Bin Laden and other al Qaeda operatives with identification cards and visas for travel, including to the Afghan terrorist training camps;

o. Saudi Arabia's AHIF provided secret courier services for al Qaeda, including but not limited to such services provided by AHIF employee and/or agent Abdirashid Aidid, who was based in Pakistan in 2000;

p. Saudi Arabia's AHIF faxed coded messages for al Qaeda, including but not limited to a message sent from AHIF in Albania to an al Qaeda operative in London in 1998 related to an al Qaeda plot in the summer of 1998 to attack the U.S. Embassy in Tirana, Albania;

q. in 1998-99, Saudi Arabia's IIRO and AHIF provided computers and other materials to al Qaeda in Afghanistan;

r. in 1999-2000, Saudi Arabia provided Wahhabist books and literature to al Qaeda in Kandahar, Afghanistan that were used to indoctrinate the Taliban leadership and al Qaeda recruits, including the 19 hijackers involved in the September 11th Attacks;

s. in 1992-1996, al Qaeda sent operatives to fight in the Bosnian war, including two of the 19 hijackers, and Saudi Arabia's charity organizations, including the SHC, WAMY, BIF and AHIF, provided those al Qaeda operatives with employment, identification, food, weapons and equipment, and the SHC employed various al Qaeda operatives, including Ali Ahmed Ali Hamad, Abdelsamad al Bahrani, Hassam al Din, Abu Miqdad al Dosari, Abu Abdelmalik al Libi, and Yusuf Rahman in Bosnia, and Abdullah al Matrafi in Mecca;

t. from 1992 to 1996, a high ranking Saudi Arabia official, the SHC and IIRO sent millions of dollars to the Third World Relief organization, an al Qaeda front, with the knowledge that a substantial portion of such contributions would fund al Qaeda, including the transportation of al Qaeda operatives to the war in Bosnia, and the purchase of various weapons, including but not limited to grenade launchers, rifles, guns and chemical cartridges;

u. in 1993, Saudi Arabia's SHC, which at the time was run by a top ranking Saudi Arabia official, as confirmed by the U.S. Defense Intelligence Agency, provided weapons to a Somali faction who were being trained by al Qaeda and those weapons were used to kill numerous U.S. servicemen who were providing security for a U.N. humanitarian mission in Somalia; and,

v. prior to and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia provided logistical support to al Qaeda in additional ways, as will be determined through further investigation, disclosures and discovery of Saudi Arabia.

D. Saudi Arabia's material support for al Qaeda's planning and execution of the September 11th Attacks

44. Saudi Arabia provided material support and resources for al Qaeda and the 19 hijackers directly linked to the actual planning and execution of the September 11th Attacks, including but not limited to the following:

a. as detailed above, Saudi Arabia was responsible for the financing of the plot through various schemes that funded al Qaeda at the same time that the 19 hijackers were being handed or sent money (§39c - h, §39q, §43h); paid Saudi Arabia's agents and employees for their work to assist the hijackers (§39i - l);

provided money for the recruitment and support of al Qaeda's Hamburg cell (§39m - p); bankrolled the Afghan terrorist training camps attended by all 19 hijackers (§40 - 42); and, logistical help used by the hijackers and their support network, including safe houses and identification (§43b - d, §43k - n);

b. in or before January 2000, a senior Saudi Arabia official at Saudi Arabia's Embassy in Washington, D.C. gave instructions to Saudi diplomat Fahad al Thumairy and Omar al Bayoumi, another agent and employee working for Saudi Arabia, including for its Embassy in Washington, D.C., its Consulate in Los Angeles, Ministry of Higher Education, Ministry of Islamic Affairs, Ministry of Defense, and/or other agencies, to meet with and provide cover, advice, planning, safe houses and other material support and resources to al Qaeda hijackers Khalid al Mihdhar and Nawaf al Hazmi, the first of the 19 hijackers to arrive in the United States;

c. in or around January 2000, Thumairy met in person in Los Angeles with Mihdhar and Hazmi upon their arrival in the United States, assisted them with transportation and housing, including arranging an apartment for the hijackers at the Avalon Westside apartments in Los Angeles, and met with and directed Bayoumi and others, including but not limited to Oualid Benomrane and Mohdar Abdullah, to provide material support and resources to hijackers Mihdhar and Hazmi;

d. from January 2000 through and including September 11, 2001, Bayoumi, acting in the course and scope of his employment with Saudi Arabia and/or as an agent of Saudi Arabia, provided money, cover, advice, planning, safe houses and other material support and resources to al Qaeda hijackers Mihdhar and Hazmi, including: helping them learn English and American culture and assimilate into the U.S. without drawing attention to themselves; finding them apartments in San Diego; co-signing their lease and providing money for the rent and security deposit; lending them his cellphone; assisting them to open bank accounts; introducing them to others who could provide them with information and assistance, including but not limited to: (i) Osama Basnan, a Saudi Arabia employee and agent working for Saudi Arabia, (ii) Yazeed al Salmi (the nephew of Bayoumi's superior in Saudi Arabia's Ministry of Defense), (iii) Anwar al Aulaqi, an al Qaeda operative in San Diego and Virginia (later designated by the United States as a Specially Designated Global Terrorist), who had meetings not only with Mihdhar and Hazmi, but also with hijacker Hani Hanjour, and provided them with guidance, encouragement and other material support and resources, and (iv) Osama Nooh and Lafi al Harb, two Saudi Arabia Naval officers attending U.S. Navy training in San Diego; and, otherwise assisting them with their preparations for the September 11th Attacks;

e. from January 2000 and thereafter before September 11, 2001, Mohdar Abdullah, at the direction of Thumairy and/or Bayoumi, provided material support and resources to hijackers Mihdhar and Hazmi, including but not limited to: assisting them to acclimate and live in California; providing them with transportation to various locations; helping them obtain social security numbers and genuine California driver's licenses; aiding them to locate and obtain phony and illegal California driver's licenses; assisting them to locate and apply to language and flight schools; performing surveillance of airport facilities with them; assisting them with visa issues to maintain their legal status in the United States; and, regularly having meals and various social contacts with them;

f. from January 2000 and thereafter before September 11, 2001, Oualid Benomrane, at the direction of Thumairy and another employee or agent of Saudi Arabia at its Los Angeles Consulate, and for compensation paid by Saudi Arabia, provided material support and resources to hijackers Mihdhar and Hazmi, including but not limited to: providing them with transportation to various locations, assisting them as a translator and helping them to learn English; and, Benomrane told U.S. law enforcement authorities that: (i) Thumairy asked him to assist Mihdhar and Hazmi and told him not to tell anyone about the two men and to keep their presence in California to himself, (ii) Thumairy told him that the two men were in Los Angeles to visit their sick father in a local hospital and (iii) the Saudi Consulate had picked up the two men at the Los Angeles airport and found an apartment for them;

g. from January 2000 and thereafter before September 11, 2001, Osama Basnan, a known al Qaeda supporter acting in the course and scope of his employment with Saudi Arabia and/or as an agent of Saudi Arabia, met with and had hundreds of phone conversations with Bayoumi, lived across the street from hijackers Mihdhar and Hazmi in San Diego and met with and provided material support and resources to them, including putting them in contact with a commercial airline pilot, Khaled al-Kayed;

h. Basnan was working at the Saudi Arabia Embassy in Washington, D.C. in 1992 when he held an event to honor Omar Abdul Rahman, the “Blind Sheikh,” who was an al Qaeda supporter convicted in 1995 for his role in masterminding a foiled terrorist attack against various New York City bridges, tunnels and landmarks; in 1998, Basnan and his wife received $25,000 through the Saudi Embassy in Washington, D.C. that was reimbursed to the Embassy by Yasin Kadi, a known al Qaeda financial operative; from February 1999 through and including May 2002, Basnan’s wife was paid $2,000-$3,000 each month via checks from that same Embassy; prior to September 11, 2001, Basnan spoke of Osama Bin Laden “as if he were a God”; either Basnan or an associate had phone contacts with the members of al Qaeda’s Hamburg cell and Basnan placed regular calls to members of Osama Bin Laden’s family; and, after the September 11th Attacks, Basnan celebrated at a party saying that the hijackers were “heroes” and remarked “what a wonderful glorious day it had been” and he later bragged that “that he did more for the hijackers than Bayoumi did”;

i. in or around June 2000, pursuant to the instructions of Thumiary and/or Bayoumi, Mohdar Abdullah brought Mihdhar and Hazmi to Los Angeles for private meetings held at the King Fahad Mosque and a Los Angeles motel with another al Qaeda operative;

j. from June 2000 and thereafter before September 11, 2001, after a trip to Saudi Arabia by Bayoumi, the nephew of his superior in the Ministry of Defense, Yazid Salmi, travelled to San Diego, and Bayoumi found Salmi accommodation with hijacker Hazmi, and Salmi provided money, including $1,900 in traveller's checks, to Hazmi in September 2000;

k. in November 1999, Hamdan Shalawi and Mohamed Qudhaieen, both known al Qaeda operatives and/or associates and Imam University graduates, were employed and paid by Saudi Arabia to attend graduate school in Arizona and perform other duties as requested by the Saudi Arabia Embassy in Washington, D.C., and were acting in the course and scope of their employment with Saudi Arabia and/or as agents of Saudi Arabia when they travelled on a commercial airline flight from Phoenix to Washington, D.C. and intentionally attempted on at least two occasions to gain entry to the airplane's cockpit to test and learn U.S. airline security procedures in a "dry run" of the September 11th Attacks;

l. Shalawi and Qudhaieen were travelling on that flight using tickets paid for by Saudi Arabia with the ostensible purpose of attending a symposium at Saudi Arabia's Institute of Islamic and Arabic Sciences in America (IIASA) with high ranking Saudi Arabia officials, including Abdullah Naseef, former MWL Secretary-General and Vice-Chairman of the Shura Council;

m. in the late 1980s Shalawi attended and received terrorist training at Masadat al Ansar, then Osama Bin Laden's main training camp; before and after the "dry run," Shalawi and/or Qudhaieen met with others involved in the planning and execution of the September 11th Attacks, including (i) hijacker Hani Hanjour, who they met from 1997-1999 at the Saudi Arabia-funded Tempe Islamic Center in Tempe, AZ; (ii) Thumairy, who they met at the opening of the King Fahad

Mosque in Culver City, CA in 1998; and (iii) several of the muscle hijackers involved in the September 11th Attacks, who underwent training in the fall and winter of 2000-2001 at an Afghan terrorist training camp at the same time as Shalawi; as a result of attending that camp, Shalawi was watchlisted by the United States as a potential terrorist and denied a visa when he attempted to re-enter the United States in August 2001 (likely as part of an al Qaeda terrorist operation); and, in 2000-2001 both Shalawi and Qudhaieen continued their work for Saudi Arabia, and were employed as teachers at Imam University;

n. from 1996 through 1999, a top ranking Saudi Arabia official sent money to a construction business in Spain that was operated as a ploy to fund al Qaeda's Spanish cell, which used the money it received to: (i) conduct surveillance and take videotapes of potential terrorist targets, including the World Trade Center, for al Qaeda in the United States, (ii) send tapes of those targets to Osama Bin Laden for his review; and (iii) establish a logistical cell in Turkey to assist the movement of al Qaeda recruits from Europe to Chechnya and Afghanistan, a route taken by members of al Qaeda's Hamburg cell, including several of the 19 hijackers;

o. it is likely that additional employees and agents of Saudi Arabia provided the 19 hijackers with material support and resources to carry out the September 11th Attacks, including but not limited to:

i. Saleh al Hussayen, a Saudi Arabia Interior Ministry employee who stayed at the same hotel as the hijackers on the evening of September 10, 2001;

ii. Saudi Arabia's pilots, who were uniquely situated to furnish the highly specialized flight training obtained by the hijackers, as demonstrated by the flight skills the hijackers used to carry out the September 11th Attacks, including Fahad Bakalka, a

Saudi Arabia pilot who flew for the Royal Family, Osama Bin Laden and Saudi Arabia's National Commercial Bank and was a friend of two of the 19 hijackers, and Mohamed Tahsin, who also flew for Saudi Arabia's National Commercial Bank and was investigated by the FBI for being a financial associate of one of the 19 hijackers;

iii. Sayid Rageah, a WAMY employee and fund raiser for al Qaeda who was the Imam at a mosque in Maryland visited by the hijackers on September 10, 2001;

iv. from 1999 through and including September 11, 2001, Abdullah Bin Laden, nephew of Osama Bin Laden, was Saudi Arabia's Administrative Officer at its United States Embassy and Head of WAMY's branch office in the United States, and maintained a close business and personal relationship with Mohamed Harunani, a WAMY contractor (Abdullah Bin Laden was listed as the emergency contact for Harunani's children and they frequently called and sent messages to each other), and Harunani was in contact with several of the al Qaeda hijackers and operatives from the Hamburg cell, including Mohamed Atta and Marwan al Shehhi;

p. the AHIF's Director in Belgium, Tarek Maroufi, was hired by the AHIF in January 2001 despite his known history as an al Qaeda operative who served a prison sentence for a prior terrorist attack in Belgium, and Maroufi organized the September 9, 2001 murder of Ahmad Shah Massoud, the commander of the Northern Alliance, an opposition force fighting the Taliban and al Qaeda in Afghanistan, by recruiting the assassins and providing them with fake Belgian passports, and Massoud's assassination was arranged to reduce the risk of an attack from Northern Alliance forces that al Qaeda expected would follow from the September 11th Attacks;

q. in interviews conducted by U.S. authorities following the September 11th Attacks, Saudi Arabia's officers, employees and agents repeatedly lied about their key contacts and information concerning the material assistance they provided to the hijackers and al Qaeda, including:

i. Thumairy falsely stated that: he did not recognize Bayoumi's name and had never seen Bayoumi in Los Angeles (but they had met on several occasions there and exchanged numerous phone calls); he did not know Abdullah or Benomrane (despite meeting with them and asking them to help the two hijackers); neither he, the King Fahad Mosque nor the Saudi Consulate rented more than one apartment at the Avalon Westside apartments in Los Angeles (where they actually had extensive additional rentals and where Thumairy arranged for the hijackers to stay upon their arrival);

ii. Bayoumi falsely stated that: he had only a random several minute encounter with the hijackers at a Los Angeles restaurant (when witnesses said he had lunch with them); after leaving the restaurant he tried to visit the King Fahad Mosque but couldn't find it and returned home without ever visiting it (but a witness confirmed that Bayoumi visited the mosque before and after going to the restaurant); he didn't know where the hijackers stayed immediately following their arrival in San Diego (although Bayoumi himself filled out an application form for the hijackers' apartment which stated that the hijackers had been living with him since their arrival); following his initial contacts with the hijackers, Bayoumi could recall only one occasion when he saw one of the hijackers and it was by chance and from a distance (while Bayoumi lived next door to the hijackers and a witness stated that he saw Bayoumi with the hijackers at their apartment on numerous occasions); he did not tell Mohdar to provide assistance to the hijackers (while Mohdar told authorities that Bayoumi asked him to drive the hijackers around San Diego and help them enroll in classes); he did not have any relationship with Basnan (but investigators concluded they were extremely close, with over 700 phone calls exchanged between them); no one told him to help the hijackers (while Thumairy and a superior in Washington, D.C. gave Bayoumi such instructions and Bayoumi's phone records confirm those contacts);

iii. Basnan was found by the authorities to have an "utter lack of credibility on virtually every material subject," and falsely claimed not to know Bayoumi (despite their numerous contacts and phone calls); denied knowing Omar Bakarbashat, a friend and supporter of the hijackers (despite the fact that Bakarbashat was Basnan's brother-in-law); and, denied ever seeing the hijackers or saying that he did (yet boasted to a witness that he provided more support to the hijackers than Bayoumi and lived across the street from them for several months);

iv. Saleh al Hussayen faked a seizure during his interview with the authorities, was taken to the hospital, where doctors found him in good health, and thereafter Hussayen quickly fled the United States;

v. Omar Abdi Mohamed falsely stated that the WSRA "charity" was an entity in name only, had never received funds and had no money (yet over $350,000 was received into and sent out from WSRA's bank account) and failed to reveal that he had been employed by Saudi Arabia's Ministry of Islamic Affairs for 10 years;

vi. Qudhaieen falsely stated that: he never got near the cockpit on the dry run flight (while witnesses saw him try to enter and rattle the cockpit door on at least two occasions); he did not know Thumairy (but later recanted and admitted that he knew Thumairy); and,

vii. Shalawi said he was enrolled and present at Arizona State University during the entire 2000-2001 academic year (but did not tell the authorities that he went to an al Qaeda Afghan terrorist training camp in the fall of 2000);

r. several of the 19 hijackers and others who assisted in the September 11th Attacks were provided employment by Saudi Arabia, despite Saudi Arabia's knowledge that they were associated with al Qaeda, including but not limited to:

i. Hani Hanjour, a hijacker who worked for the IIRO from 1989-1991 in Pakistan and Afghanistan and likely received payments from Saudi Arabia to attend schools in the United States at various times starting in 1992, including from December 2000 through and including September 11, 2001;

ii. Mohand Shehri, a hijacker who worked for the IIRO in logistics, moving goods from Peshawar, Pakistan to Kabul, Afghanistan, starting in 1999, and;

iii. Wail al Shehri, a hijacker who worked for Saudi Arabia as a teacher on a Saudi Arabia military base from 1999 through 2001, during which time he trained at al Qaeda camps in Afghanistan;

iv. Omar Abdi Mohamed, an employee of Saudi Arabia's Ministry of Islamic Affairs, who, pursuant to directions from a superior in the Ministry, fraudulently obtained a visa to enter the United States and provided substantial funding for al Qaeda through the WSRA charity, as detailed herein;

v. Omar al Bayoumi, an employee of Saudi Arabia who provided substantial assistance to the hijackers, and who had an indicator in his Saudi Arabia passport of ties to al Qaeda, as detailed herein;

vi. Fahad al Thumairy, a Saudi Arabia diplomat at its Los Angeles consulate, who provided material assistance to the hijackers and was denied entry to the United States after the September 11th Attacks because of his ties to terrorism;

vii. Osama Basnan, a Saudi Arabia employee and/or agent and frequent contact of Bayoumi who was a known al Qaeda associate and/or operative;

viii. Hamdan Shalawi, a Saudi Arabia employee and al Qaeda operative who attended Osama Bin Laden's main terrorist training camp in Afghanistan the late 1980s; and,

ix. Mohamed Qudhaieen, a Saudi Arabia employee and known al Qaeda associate.

s. prior to and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia provided material support and resources directly linked to the actual planning and execution of the September 11th Attacks in additional ways, as will be determined through further investigation, disclosures and discovery of Saudi Arabia.

III.

Saudi Arabia's domination and control of its charitable organizations

45. As set forth herein, at all relevant times prior to and on September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia used its charitable organizations to perform core governmental functions, and those organizations acted as Saudi Arabia's alter-ego and/or agent.

46. At all relevant times prior to and on September 11, 2001, the MWL, IIRO and Rabita Trust were each part of Saudi Arabia, alter-egos of Saudi Arabia and/or agents of Saudi Arabia, and it would work a fraud or injustice to regard them as legal entities separate from Saudi Arabia, as evidenced by the following:

a. in pleadings filed before this Court, the MWL and IIRO asserted they were immune from suit because of their status as a foreign sovereign, namely Saudi Arabia;

b. the MWL, IIRO and Rabita Trust were founded by Saudi Arabia, and were closely related organizations with shared employees, bank accounts and offices and their daily operations were overseen by MWL's Secretary General, who was appointed and directed by Saudi Arabia;

c. the Secretary General of the MWL was a Saudi Arabia Minister-level appointment named by Royal Decree and served as the President of the IIRO, appointed the Secretary General of the IIRO, and had the power to hire and fire IIRO employees;

d. the Rabita Trust was part of the MWL and the MWL ran the operations of the Rabita Trust on a day-to-day basis and had the power to hire and fire Rabita Trust employees;

e. MWL, IIRO and Rabita Trust received directions from and sought the approval of Saudi Arabia's King, Minister of Islamic Affairs and other senior officials of Saudi Arabia regarding all aspects of their operations, including but not limited to personnel, finances, bank accounts, donations, funding, travel and project decisions, such as:

- i. the approval of the King was obtained for fund raising campaigns;
- ii. the MWL sought approval from the Ministry of Islamic Affairs to make trips to foreign countries;
- iii. Saudi Embassy officials provided the IIRO with strict instructions regarding making statements to the press;
- iv. the Supreme Council of Islamic Affairs directed the MWL to provide project aid, including for Burmese refugees in 1999;
- v. the IIRO's Secretary General confirmed in a September 2000 letter that the IIRO was overseen by the Dawa Committee of the Ministry of Islamic Affairs;

f. the existence of the MWL, IIRO and Rabita Trust was subject to the ongoing approval of Saudi Arabia and could be terminated at any time by Saudi Arabia;

g. MWL's Secretary General from 1995-2000, Abdullah bin Saleh al Obaid, confirmed under oath that he was appointed to his position by Royal Decree of Saudi Arabia and that the MWL was "sponsored and financially supported by the Saudi Government";

h. Saudi Arabia's Minister of Islamic Affairs Saleh bin Abdulaziz Al Ash-Shaikh described MWL as a "public" institution of Saudi Arabia;

i. the annual budget of the MWL, IIRO and Rabita Trust was funded almost exclusively by Saudi Arabia and, for example, MWL's financial records for 2000-01 show that 98.5% of MWL's revenues were paid by Saudi Arabia;

j. the policies followed by MWL, IIRO and Rabita Trust were determined by a Constitutive Council chaired by the Grand Mufti appointed by the King of Saudi Arabia;

k. the highest officers of the MWL, IIRO and Rabita Trust responsible for their operations simultaneously held other positions as officials with Saudi Arabia, and reported to higher ranking officials of Saudi Arabia, including but not limited to:

i. MWL's Secretary General was a member of Saudi Arabia's Supreme Council of Islamic Affairs;

ii. MWL's Jurisprudence Council member was the Head of Saudi Arabia's Shura Council;

iii. IIRO's Board Director was a member of the Shura Council;

iv. Rabita Trust's Secretary General was the Executive Director of Saudi Arabia's SJRC;

v. MWL's Constituent Council Chair was Chair of the Senior Council of Saudi Arabia's Ulema;

l. employees of the MWL, IIRO and Rabita Trust were simultaneously employed by Saudi Arabia in another capacity, often as employees of a Saudi Arabia Embassy or other Saudi Arabia agency, and reported on a day-to-day basis to more senior employees and officers of Saudi Arabia;

m. lower level employees of the MWL, IIRO and Rabita Trust reported on a day-to-day basis to more senior MWL, IIRO and Rabita Trust employees and officers who simultaneously worked for Saudi Arabia in another capacity, often as employees of a Saudi Arabia Embassy or other Saudi Arabia agency, and who in turn reported on a day-to-day basis to even more senior employees and officers of Saudi Arabia;

n. MWL, IIRO and Rabita Trust officials and employees received Saudi Arabia diplomatic passports and traveled in the name of and as representatives of Saudi Arabia;

o. the employees and officers of the MWL, IIRO and Rabita Trust considered themselves to be employees and officers of Saudi Arabia subject to the exclusive control of Saudi Arabia;

p. an MWL employee and Director of IIRO in Canada, testified in 1999 that the MWL “is a fully government funded organization” and that “[i]n other words, I work for the government of Saudi Arabia” and “am an employee of that government....”; that “the IIRO is the relief branch of that organization [the MWL] which means that we are controlled in all of our activities and plans by the government of Saudi Arabia...”; and, that the MWL and IIRO “has to abide by the policy of the Government of Saudi Arabia...” and that “[i]f anybody deviates from that, he would be fired; he would not work at all with IIRO or with the [MWL]...”;

q. Saudi Arabia gave the employees of the MWL, IIRO and Rabita Trust the same protections and privileges that it provided to its own employees working abroad;

r. Saudi Arabia’s Embassies paid the salaries of MWL and IIRO employees and/or had the MWL and IIRO pay the salaries of the employees of Saudi Arabia’s embassies;

s. the MWL, IIRO and Rabita Trust shared offices that were provided by Saudi Arabia, at locations chosen by Saudi Arabia, including but not limited to offices located inside Saudi Arabia's embassies around the world, and, as an example, an MWL office in Pakistan operated from the Saudi Arabia Ministry of Islamic Affairs office at the Saudi Embassy;

t. Saudi Arabia's Embassy bank accounts held the funds of the MWL and IIRO, commingled Saudi Arabia's Embassy funds with the funds of the MWL and IIRO and used Saudi Arabia Embassy bank accounts to receive and disburse MWL and IIRO funds;

u. Saudi Arabia's Embassies made purchasing decisions for the MWL and IIRO;

v. Saudi Arabia's Embassies provided the MWL and IIRO with supplies and equipment and/or had the MWL and IIRO provide Saudi embassies with supplies and equipment;

w. Saudi Arabia's Embassy officials reviewed and determined whether or not to grant funding applications made by third parties to the MWL and IIRO;

x. Saudi Arabia's Embassy officials mediated disputes between the MWL and IIRO and other Saudi Arabia charity organizations;

y. Saudi Arabia's Embassy officials contacted and lobbied foreign governments on behalf of the MWL and IIRO and their employees, including allowing the MWL and IIRO to maintain their presence in foreign countries, legal disputes and obtaining diplomatic license plates;

z. Saudi Arabia authorized the MWL to provide loans to Saudi Arabia's Embassy staff;

aa. the MWL had official Saudi Arabia clearance to view classified Saudi Arabia documents from the Saudi Arabia Council of Ministers; and

bb. such additional facts as set forth herein or that may be determined through further investigation and discovery.

47. At all relevant times prior to and on September 11, 2001, WAMY and BIF were each part of Saudi Arabia, alter-egos of Saudi Arabia and/or agents of Saudi Arabia, and it would work a fraud or injustice to regard them as legal entities separate from Saudi Arabia, as evidenced by the following:

a. from its inception in 1972, WAMY was established and operated by Saudi Arabia pursuant to a Royal Decree of Saudi Arabia;

b. BIF was established as a part of WAMY in 1987 and WAMY funded the operations of BIF and had the power to hire and fire BIF employees;

c. the day-to-day operations of WAMY and BIF were subject to the control and direction of Saudi Arabia's Ministry of Islamic Affairs, Embassies and top ranking officials;

d. the existence of WAMY and BIF were subject to the ongoing approval of Saudi Arabia and could be terminated at any time by Saudi Arabia;

e. the annual budget of WAMY and BIF was funded by Saudi Arabia, and Mutaz Saleh Abu Unuq, Financial Director of WAMY, confirmed in a 2003 affidavit that he reviewed WAMY's finances from 1994 through and including September 11, 2001, and stated that Saudi Arabia funded "a large portion" of WAMY's budget, including but not limited to grants to WAMY from the Saudi Arabia Ministry of Finance upon the recommendation of the Saudi Arabia Supreme Council of Islamic Affairs;

f. WAMY and BIF were governed by WAMY's President and that position was held by Saudi Arabia's Minister of Islamic Affairs, including from 1999 through and including September 11, 2001, when Saleh bin Abdulaziz Al Ash-Shaikh, simultaneously acted for Saudi Arabia as WAMY's President and as Saudi Arabia's Minister of Islamic Affairs;

g. Saudi Arabia's Minister of Islamic Affairs and WAMY's President Saleh bin Abdulaziz Al Ash-Shaikh described WAMY as a "public" charity of Saudi Arabia.

h. Saudi Arabia appointed WAMY's President, Secretary General and members of WAMY's General Assembly, who, together with WAMY's President, directed WAMY and BIF;

i. WAMY and BIF received directions from and sought the approval of Saudi Arabia's King, Minister of Islamic Affairs and other senior officials of Saudi Arabia regarding all aspects of their operations, including but not limited to finances, personnel, donations, funding, travel and project decisions, such as:

i. from 1999 through and including September 11, 2001, WAMY's President was Saudi Arabia's Minister of Islamic Affairs;

ii. in February 2000, WAMY's Secretary General confirmed to the Saudi government that WAMY operated in accordance with the instructions of Saudi Arabia's Minister for Islamic Affairs;

iii. WAMY's annual report was submitted to and reviewed by a top ranking official of Saudi Arabia;

iv. A top ranking official of Saudi Arabia instructed WAMY to provide university placement for specific foreign students;

v. Saudi Arabia's Ministry of Islamic Affairs selected and appointed WAMY's overseas employees;

vi. Saudi Arabia's Ministry of Islamic Affairs directed WAMY to provide assistance to specific mosques and Islamic centers;

j. all of the officers of WAMY and BIF were appointed by Saudi Arabia and many of those officers hold other positions as officials with Saudi Arabia, including but not limited to Dr. Maneh el Johani, WAMY's Secretary General from 1987 through and including September 11, 2001, who also served as a member of Saudi Arabia's Shura Council and head of its Islamic Affairs Committee and Abdullah Naseef, WAMY's vice-chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Shura Council (who, as set forth herein, met with and assisted Osama Bin Laden to establish al Qaeda);

k. employees of WAMY and BIF employees were simultaneously employed by Saudi Arabia in another capacity, as employees of a Saudi Arabia Embassy or other Saudi Arabia agency, and reported on a day-to-day basis to more senior employees and officers of Saudi Arabia, for example, Abdullah bin Laden, Osama Bin Laden's nephew and Saudi Arabia's Administrative Officer of its United States Embassy for nearly a decade, was at the same time the Head of WAMY's branch office in the United States;

l. lower level employees of WAMY and BIF reported on a day-to-day basis to more senior WAMY and BIF employees and officers who simultaneously worked for Saudi Arabia in another capacity, as employees of a Saudi Arabia Embassy or other Saudi Arabia agency, and who in turn reported on a day-to-day basis to even more senior employees and officers of Saudi Arabia;

m. employees and officials of WAMY received Saudi Arabia diplomatic passports and traveled in the name of and as representatives of Saudi Arabia;

n. employees and officers of WAMY and BIF considered themselves to be employees and officers of Saudi Arabia subject to the exclusive control of Saudi Arabia;

o. Saudi Arabia gave the employees of WAMY and BIF the same protections and privileges that it provided to its own employees working abroad;

p. Saudi Arabia's U.S. Embassy paid the salaries of WAMY employees, including for example Abdullah Bin Laden and Mohamed Faris;

q. the offices of WAMY and BIF were provided by Saudi Arabia, at locations chosen by Saudi Arabia, including but not limited to offices inside Saudi Arabia's embassies around the world;

r. Saudi Arabia's Embassy bank accounts held the funds of the WAMY, commingled Saudi Arabia's Embassy funds with the funds of the WAMY and used Saudi Arabia Embassy bank accounts to receive and disburse WAMY funds;

s. Saudi Arabia's Embassies provided WAMY and BIF with supplies, services and equipment and/or had WAMY and BIF provide Saudi Arabia's embassies with supplies, services and equipment; and

t. such additional facts as set forth herein or that may be determined through further investigation and discovery.

48. At all relevant times prior to and on September 11, 2001, the AHIF was part of Saudi Arabia, an alter-ego of Saudi Arabia and/or an agent of Saudi Arabia, and it would work a fraud or injustice to regard it as a legal entity separate from Saudi Arabia, as evidenced by the following:

a. in 1988-89, Wael Jelaidan, then the Director of Saudi Arabia's SRC's Pakistan office, directed an SRC employee, Aqeel Abdulaziz al Aqeel, to create the AHIF in Quetta, Pakistan as a division of Saudi Arabia's SRC, and the AHIF was established as a division of the SRC; in 1992 the AHIF established its headquarters office in Saudi Arabia's capital, Riyadh, under the official patronage of a top ranking Saudi Arabia official and Saleh bin Abdulaziz Al Ash-Shaikh, who was later appointed as Deputy and then Minister of Islamic Affairs;

b. AHIF was governed by AHIF's Chairman and that position was held by Saudi Arabia's Minister of Islamic Affairs, including from 1999 through and including September 11, 2001, when Saleh bin Abdulaziz Al Ash-Shaikh simultaneously held positions for Saudi Arabia as AHIF's Chairman and as Saudi Arabia's Minister of Islamic Affairs;

c. Saudi Arabia's Ministry of Islamic Affairs appoints AHIF's Board of Directors, General Director and senior management; according to the affidavit testimony of AHIF's Financial and Administrative Manager, Khalid bin Obaid Azzahri, "[AHIF] operates under the supervision of the Saudi Minister of Islamic Affairs, who appoints its Board of Directors and senior management personnel";

d. AHIF's General Director from AHIF's inception through and including September 11, 2001, Aqeel Abdulaziz al Aqeel, confirmed that "we work under the supervision of Saudi government" and U.S. government investigations showed that at least two Saudi Arabia ministers supervised AHIF;

e. the annual budget of AHIF was funded by Saudi Arabia, and AHIF's General Director Al Aqeel acknowledged that more than 95% of AHIF's funding came directly from Saudi Arabia;

f. the day-to-day operations of AHIF were subject to the control and direction of Saudi Arabia's Ministry of Islamic Affairs and Embassies;

g. the existence of AHIF was subject to the ongoing approval of Saudi Arabia and could be terminated at any time by Saudi Arabia, and in or around June 2004 Saudi Arabia made the decision to terminate AHIF and Saudi Arabia retained the assets of AHIF as its own;

h. AHIF received directions from and sought the approval of Saudi Arabia's King, Minister of Islamic Affairs, Ministry of Islamic Affairs, the Islamic Affairs Bureaus within Saudi Arabia's Embassies and other officials of Saudi Arabia regarding all aspects of their operations, including but not limited to personnel decisions, finances, bank accounts, funding, travel and project decisions;

i. many of AHIF's officers and employees held other positions as officials with Saudi Arabia, including its Chairman, its accountant at AHIF's headquarters, Abdulaziz al Shoumar, and AHIF's officer and President of its U.S. branch, Soliman al Buthe, and reported on a day-to-day basis to more senior employees and officers of Saudi Arabia;

j. lower level employees of AHIF reported on a day-to-day basis to more senior AHIF employees and officers who simultaneously worked for Saudi Arabia in another capacity, often as employees of a Saudi Arabia Embassy or other Saudi Arabia agency, and who in turn reported on a day-to-day basis to even more senior employees and officers of Saudi Arabia;

k. offices of the AHIF were provided by Saudi Arabia, at locations chosen by Saudi Arabia, including but not limited to offices inside Saudi Arabia's embassies around the world and at Saudi Arabia's embassies and the Ministry of Islamic Affairs, where the AHIF's Administrative Board operated;

l. Saudi Arabia's embassies provided AHIF with supplies, services and equipment and/or had AHIF provide Saudi Arabia's embassies with supplies, services and equipment;

m. employees of AHIF deemed themselves employees of Saudi Arabia bound to follow policies and dictates set by Saudi Arabia;

n. after Saudi Arabia withdrew its Ambassador from the Saudi Arabia Embassy in Kabul, Afghanistan, the Director of the AHIF in Afghanistan was instructed to take possession of that Embassy, and the AHIF occupied that Embassy, as described herein;

o. Saudi Arabia Embassy officials offered to conceal AHIF documents from law enforcement agencies; and

p. such additional facts as set forth herein or that may be determined through further investigation and discovery.

49. At all relevant times prior to and on September 11, 2001, the SHC was part of Saudi Arabia, an alter-ego of Saudi Arabia and/or an agent of Saudi Arabia, and it would work a fraud or injustice to regard it as a legal entity separate from Saudi Arabia, as evidenced by the following:

a. in a pleading previously filed before this Court, the SHC specifically asserted that it was immune from suit because of its status as a foreign sovereign, namely Saudi Arabia;

b. according to affidavit testimony of the Minister of State of the Council of Ministers of Saudi Arabia, Dr. Mutlib bin Abdullah al Nafissa, the SHC "is an arm of the Saudi Arabian government" and "[a]ctions taken by the SHC properly are viewed as actions of the Government of Saudi Arabia...";

c. according to affidavit testimony of Saud bin Mohammad al Roshood, Director of the Executive Office of the SHC, the SHC was created by a decision of the President of the Council of Ministers of Saudi Arabia, has been continuously headed by Prince (now King) Salman, and SHC's Executive Committee and Supreme Commission of the SHC include Saudi Arabia officials;

d. the Director of the SHC was a Saudi Arabia employee and member of the Saudi Arabia civil service and reported to other Saudi Arabia employees;

e. Saudi Arabia provided all of the funding to operate the SHC; all of the fund raising of the SHC was sanctioned by Saudi Arabia; and, Saudi Arabia was the largest source of charity funding for the SHC;

f. the existence of the SHC was subject to the ongoing approval of Saudi Arabia and could be terminated at any time by Saudi Arabia;

g. Saudi Arabia decided the recipients and amounts of grants made by the SHC;

h. employees of SHC were considered to be employees of Saudi Arabia and members of the civil service of Saudi Arabia and deemed themselves employees of Saudi Arabia bound to follow policies and dictates set by Saudi Arabia;

i. the SHC was staffed with civil servant employees of Saudi Arabia detailed from other Saudi Arabia ministries and administrative organs, and such employees were paid by their respective ministries and administrative organs, rather than by the SHC; and

j. such additional facts as set forth herein or that may be determined through further investigation and discovery.

50. At all relevant times prior to and on September 11, 2001, the SJRC was part of Saudi Arabia, an alter-ego of Saudi Arabia and/or an agent of Saudi Arabia, and it would work a fraud or injustice to regard it as a legal entity separate from Saudi Arabia, as evidenced by the following:

a. in a pleading previously filed before this Court, the SJRC specifically asserted that it was immune from suit because of its status as a foreign sovereign, namely Saudi Arabia;

b. Dr. Abdulrahman al Swailem, President of the SJRC, provided affidavit testimony that the SJRC was created in 1999 pursuant to a High Order issued by the King of Saudi Arabia upon the recommendation of the Council of Ministers of Saudi Arabia and has “always functioned as a political subdivision, agency, or instrumentality of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia”;

c. the SJRC and its component organizations, the MWL, IIRO, WAMY, AHIF and SRC, was directed and controlled by Saudi Arabia’s Minister of Interior together with other high ranking representatives of Saudi Arabia’s Ministries;

d. Saudi Arabia provided all of SJRC’s funding;

e. the existence of the SJRC was subject to the ongoing approval of Saudi Arabia and could be terminated at any time by Saudi Arabia;

f. employees of SJRC were considered to be employees of Saudi Arabia and deemed themselves employees of Saudi Arabia bound to follow policies and dictates set by Saudi Arabia; and

g. such additional facts as set forth herein or that may be determined through further investigation and discovery.

51. At all relevant times prior to and on September 11, 2001, the SRC was part of Saudi Arabia, an alter-ego of Saudi Arabia and/or an agent of Saudi Arabia, and it would work a fraud or injustice to regard it as a legal entity separate from Saudi Arabia, as evidenced by the following:

a. in a pleading previously filed before this Court, the SRC specifically asserted that it was immune from suit because of its status as a foreign sovereign, namely Saudi Arabia;

b. Abdulrahman al Swailem, President of the Saudi Arabian Red Crescent Society, testified that he was appointed by Royal Order of Saudi Arabia's King, that he holds "Excellency level status within the Saudi Arabian Government", and that Saudi Arabia "sponsors and supervises the [SRC], and... appoints all of its directors."

c. the SRC requires that the directors of the SRC include members of Saudi Arabia's Council of Ministers;

d. Saudi Arabia provided all of the SRC's funding;

e. the existence of the SRC was subject to the ongoing approval of Saudi Arabia and could be terminated at any time by Saudi Arabia;

f. employees of SRC were considered to be employees of Saudi Arabia and deemed themselves employees of Saudi Arabia bound to follow policies and dictates set by Saudi Arabia; and

g. such additional facts as set forth herein or that may be determined through further investigation and discovery.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION TO RECOVER
PERSONAL INJURY AND WRONGFUL DEATH DAMAGES
PURSUANT TO THE JASTA AND THE ANTI-TERRORISM ACT

52. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all of the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

53. This action is brought pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2333(a) for the injuries and deaths suffered by U.S. nationals in the September 11th Attacks.

54. Those attacks constituted acts of international terrorism pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §2331 that violated federal and state laws against murder, kidnapping, assault and aircraft hijacking, including but not limited to 18 U.S.C. §2332b (prohibiting terrorist acts of kidnapping, assault and murder) and 49 U.S.C. §46502 (prohibiting aircraft hijacking), and at the time those acts were committed, planned and authorized, al Qaeda was designated as a Foreign Terrorist Organization under section 219 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. §1189.

55. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §2333(a), (d), Saudi Arabia aided and abetted al Qaeda through numerous acts detailed herein by knowingly providing it with substantial assistance to prepare and carry out an act or acts of international terrorism.

56. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §2333(a), (d), Saudi Arabia conspired with al Qaeda and others to provide it with substantial material support and resources, with the shared understanding, knowledge and intent that said support and resources would be used by al Qaeda to prepare and carry out an act or acts of international terrorism.

57. The others in the conspiracy currently known to plaintiffs are named herein, and include Saudi Arabia's officials, employees and agents, Saudi Arabia's charity organizations, Osama Bin Laden and al Qaeda operatives; the names of additional persons involved in the conspiracy await discovery and further investigation.

58. Pursuant to §2333(a), Saudi Arabia committed an act or acts of international terrorism, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2331(1)(A), in violation of federal and state criminal laws, or that would have been a criminal violation if committed within the United States or any state, including but not limited to a violation of the following:

- 18 U.S.C. §2(a) – Aiding, abetting, counseling, commanding, inducing or procuring a federal crime;
- 18 U.S.C. §371 – Conspiring to commit a federal crime;
- 18 U.S.C. §2332 – Conspiring to attempt to kill or kill a U.S. national;

- 18 U.S.C. §2332a – Conspiring to use a weapon of mass destruction;
- 18 U.S.C. §2332b – Conspiring to commit an act of terrorism;
- 18 U.S.C. §2339A - Providing material support to terrorists;
- 18 U.S.C. §2339B - Providing material support or resources to designated foreign terrorist organizations;
- 18 U.S.C. §2339C - Prohibitions against the financing of terrorism;
- 49 U.S.C. §46502 – Conspiring to commit aircraft piracy;
- N.J.S.A. §2C:2-6 – Accomplice liability;
- N.Y. Penal Law §20.00 - Criminal liability for conduct of another;
- N.Y. Penal Law §115.00 - Criminal facilitation in the fourth degree;
- Mass. Gen. Laws ch. 274, §2 – Accessory or aiding in the commission of a felony;
- 18 Pa. C.S. §306 – Accomplice liability; and
- Va. Code Ann. §18.2-18 – Accessory before the fact.

59. The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia's conduct amounted to a violation of 18 U.S.C. §2(a) because Saudi Arabia intentionally aided, abetted and counseled the commission of a criminal act or acts of international terrorism by al Qaeda, including its hijackers and other operatives, by providing the terrorist organization with material support, resources and funding with the knowledge that al Qaeda would use such assistance to prepare for and commit such a criminal act or acts.

60. Saudi Arabia's conduct amounted to a violation of 18 U.S.C. §371 because it conspired with al Qaeda and others to provide it with substantial material support and resources with the shared understanding, knowledge and intent that said support and resources would be used by al Qaeda to prepare for and carry out a criminal act or acts of international terrorism.

61. Saudi Arabia's conduct amounted to a violation of 18 U.S.C. §2339A in that on and prior to September 11, 2001, it provided material support or resources for al Qaeda and/or conspired with al Qaeda and others to provide material support or resources for al Qaeda, with the knowledge or intent that they would be used in preparation for, or in carrying out a violation of the statutes specified in 18 U.S.C. §2339A, including 18 U.S.C. §2332b (prohibiting terrorist acts of kidnapping, assault and murder) and 49 U.S.C. §46502 (prohibiting aircraft hijacking).

62. Saudi Arabia's conduct amounted to a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2339A in that on and prior to September 11, 2001, it concealed or disguised the nature, location, source, or ownership of al Qaeda's material support or resources and/or conspired with Saudi Arabia's employees and agents, Saudi Arabia's charity organizations, al Qaeda, al Qaeda operatives and sympathizers and others, known and unknown, to conceal or disguise the nature, location, source or ownership of al Qaeda's material support or resources, with the knowledge or intent that they would be used in preparation for, or in carrying out a violation of the statutes specified in 18 U.S.C. §2339A, including 18 U.S.C. §2332b (prohibiting terrorist acts of kidnapping, assault and murder) and 49 U.S.C. §46502 (prohibiting aircraft hijacking).

63. Saudi Arabia's conduct amounted to a violation of 18 U.S.C. §2339B in that on and prior to September 11, 2001, it knowingly provided material support or resources to al Qaeda, and/or Saudi Arabia conspired to knowingly provide material support or resources to al Qaeda with Saudi Arabia's employees and agents, Saudi Arabia's charity organizations, al Qaeda, al Qaeda operatives and sympathizers and/or others, known and unknown, with the knowledge that al Qaeda was a designated Foreign Terrorist Organization, has engaged or engages in terrorist activity or has engaged or engages in terrorism.

64. Saudi Arabia's conduct amounted to a violation of 18 U.S.C. §2339C in that on and prior to September 11, 2001, as detailed within, it provided or collected funds for al Qaeda and/or conspired with Saudi Arabia's employees and agents, Saudi Arabia's charity organizations, al Qaeda, al Qaeda operatives and sympathizers and others, known and unknown, to provide or collect funds for al Qaeda, with the intention that such funds be used, or with the knowledge that such funds were to be used, in full or in part, to carry out an act or acts of international terrorism.

65. Saudi Arabia's conduct amounted to a violation of relevant state criminal laws on facilitating, aiding and abetting a crime, and conspiracy, including but not limited to those cited above, in that it:

- a. intentionally aided, abetted and counseled al Qaeda by providing it with material support, resources and funding with the knowledge that al Qaeda would use such assistance to commit an act or acts of international terrorism; and/or
- b. believing it was probably rendering aid in the form of material support or resources and funds to al Qaeda to engage in a crime, provided al Qaeda with the means or opportunity for the commission thereof and which in fact aided al Qaeda to commit the September 11th Attacks; and/or
- c. conspired with Saudi Arabia's employees and agents, Saudi Arabia's charity organizations, al Qaeda, al Qaeda operatives and sympathizers and others known and unknown, to violate relevant state criminal laws on facilitating and aiding and abetting a crime and committing an act or acts of terrorism, including assault, hijacking, kidnapping and murder.

66. As detailed herein, the aforesaid act or acts of international terrorism:

- a. involve a violent act or acts dangerous to human life, as demonstrated by the known and foreseeable outcomes of injury and death resulting from providing substantial assistance to al Qaeda terrorists;

b. were committed primarily outside the territorial jurisdiction of the United States and also transcended national boundaries in terms of the means by which they were accomplished, the persons they appear intended to intimidate or coerce, and the locales in which their perpetrators operated; and

c. appeared to be intended to intimidate or coerce a civilian population; to influence the policy of a government by intimidation or coercion; or, to affect the conduct of a government by mass destruction, kidnapping or assassination.

67. The aforesaid acts of Saudi Arabia were not mere negligence, but each act individually and/or in combination with one or more acts, constituted conduct that was intentional, reckless, willful and/or grossly negligent and each of those acts individually and/or in combination with one or more of those acts was a proximate cause of the September 11th Attacks and the resulting injuries and deaths of plaintiffs' decedents.

68. The September 11th Attacks could not have occurred absent the knowing and substantial assistance provided to al Qaeda by Saudi Arabia and those attacks and resulting injuries and deaths were a natural, probable and reasonably foreseeable consequence of Saudi Arabia's conduct.

69. As a result, the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia is liable to plaintiffs for all damages resulting from the injuries and deaths in the September 11th Attacks.

70. Plaintiffs, the surviving family members of each decedent, the decedents and their Estates have suffered and will continue to suffer past and future damages as a result of the injuries and deaths sustained in the September 11th Attacks, including but not limited to: personal injury damages, wrongful death damages, survival damages, economic damages, pecuniary loss, non-economic damages, pain and suffering, torture, imprisonment, kidnapping, fear of impending death, physical trauma, mental anguish, mental distress, grief, loss of enjoyment of life, loss of earnings, financial support, services, companionship, care, guidance, consortium, solatium, burial costs, medical and other expenses and other provable damages allowed by law.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs pray that judgment(s) for relief in the form of an award or awards of monetary damages for personal injury, wrongful death, all recoverable losses under 28 U.S.C. §2333 and other appropriate relief be entered on their first cause of action in favor of the plaintiffs individually and as estate representatives and against the defendant Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, with separate awards for each plaintiff, where appropriate, plus interest, costs, punitive damages, treble damages, attorney's fees, and such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION FOR PERSONAL INJURY AND WRONGFUL DEATH DAMAGES PURSUANT TO STATE TORT LAW

71. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all of the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

72. On March 10, 2004, a class action complaint seeking damages for a class defined as the spouses, children, parents, siblings and legal representatives of those individuals killed in the September 11th Attacks (excluding the 19 hijackers) was timely filed against the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia under the caption, O'Neill v. Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, et al, 04-CV-01922 (GBD), and the O'Neill case currently remains pending before this Court.

73. O'Neill asserted state tort law claims against the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia for causing the deaths of plaintiffs' decedents in the September 11th Attacks, including claims for wrongful death, survival, aiding and abetting, conspiracy and negligence, including intentional, knowing, reckless, willful, wanton, grossly negligent and/or negligent tortious acts and omissions.

74. Plaintiffs herein include members of the class defined in O'Neill, but to date no determination regarding class certification has been made by this Court.

75. This cause of action is brought before that determination and plaintiffs present these state tort law claims to assert and protect their rights to pursue such claims, for example, in the event that the O'Neill class is not certified by this Court.

76. Pursuant to the doctrine first declared by the Supreme Court in American Pipe & Construction Co. v. Utah, 414 U.S. 538 (1974), the time for plaintiffs who are members of the O'Neill class to bring their state law claims has been tolled from the date the O'Neill action was brought until this Court makes its determination on class certification.

77. For years prior to and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia: participated and associated with al Qaeda in its terrorist agenda as set forth herein; provided al Qaeda and its hijackers with substantial material support, financing and resources; knew that it was assisting a terrorist organization that had conducted and was actively planning attacks against the United States; and committed tortious acts and omissions that were intentional, knowing, reckless, willful, wanton, grossly negligent and/or negligent.

78. Saudi Arabia's conduct was a proximate cause of the deaths, injuries and resulting damages suffered by plaintiffs, as it furnished the essential support networks, cover and funding used by al Qaeda to successfully plan and execute the September 11th Attacks.

79. Saudi Arabia tortiously aided and abetted al Qaeda by providing substantial assistance in the form of funding, support and resources to al Qaeda and its hijackers with the knowledge that they planned to use such assistance to prepare for and conduct terrorist attacks against the United States and its citizens and/or with reckless disregard of the known probable risk that such assistance would be used for those terrorist purposes.

80. Saudi Arabia tortiously conspired with al Qaeda and others to provide al Qaeda and its hijackers with substantial material support and resources, with the shared agreement, understanding, knowledge and intent that said support and resources would be used by al Qaeda to plan and carry out terrorist acts against the United States.

81. For years prior to and including September 11, 2001, Saudi Arabia knew that its officers, employees and agents and Saudi Arabia's charitable organizations were engaging in illegal and/or criminal activity by using Saudi Arabia's offices, equipment and other resources to provide substantial material support and resources to al Qaeda and, that Saudi Arabia's officers, employees and agents, including but not limited to Adel Batterjee, Wael Jelaidan. Soliman al Buthe, Aqeel al Aqeel, Abdelhamid al Mujil, Enaam Arnaout, Fahad al Thumairy, Omar al Bayoumi, Omar Abdi Mohamed, Osama Basnan, Hamdan Shalawi, Mohamed al Qudhaieen, Mohamed al Fakihi and others were al Qaeda operatives or sympathizers who were using their government positions to provide substantial assistance to al Qaeda.

82. Despite such knowledge, Saudi Arabia intentionally and/or recklessly failed to properly supervise its officers, employees and agents and Saudi Arabia's charitable organizations to stop them from using Saudi Arabia's offices, equipment and other resources to provide substantial assistance to al Qaeda despite the known and/or foreseeable risk that such assistance was being used by al Qaeda to prepare and conduct a terrorist attack against the United States and its citizens.

83. Moreover, Saudi Arabia intentionally and/or recklessly selected, hired and retained as its officers, employees and agents various individuals, including Adel Batterjee, Wael Jelaidan. Soliman al Buthe, Aqeel al Aqeel, Abdelhamid al Mujil, Enaam Arnaout, Fahad al Thumairy, Omar al Bayoumi, Omar Abdi Mohamed, Osama Basnan, Hamdan Shalawi, Mohamed Qudhaieen, Mohamed Fakihi and others, who Saudi Arabia knew were al Qaeda operatives or sympathizers, despite the known and/or foreseeable risk that those employees and agents would use and/or were using their government positions to provide substantial assistance to al Qaeda to prepare and conduct a terrorist attack against the United States and its citizens.

84. The aforesaid intentional, criminal, knowing, reckless, willful, wanton, grossly negligent and/or negligent acts and/or omissions of Saudi Arabia were individually and/or in combination with one or more of those acts and/or omissions a proximate, substantial cause of the September 11th Attacks and the plaintiffs' injuries, deaths and resulting damages.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs pray that judgment(s) for relief in the form of an award or awards of monetary damages for personal injury, wrongful death and other appropriate relief be entered on their second cause of action in favor of the plaintiffs individually and as estate representatives and against the defendant Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, with separate awards for each plaintiff, where appropriate, plus interest, costs, punitive damages, treble damages, attorney's fees, and such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

PERSONAL INJURY AND WRONGFUL DEATH
DAMAGES PURSUANT TO THE ALIEN TORT CLAIMS ACT

85. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all of the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

86. O'Neill asserted claims under the Alien Tort Claims Act against the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia for causing the deaths of plaintiffs' decedents in the September 11th Attacks based on violations of international law resulting in injury and death in the September 11th Attacks.

87. Plaintiffs herein include members of the class defined in O'Neill, but to date no determination regarding class certification has been made by this Court.

88. This cause of action is brought before that determination and plaintiffs present these Alien Tort Claims Act claims to assert and protect their rights to pursue such claims, for example, in the event that the O'Neill class is not certified by this Court.

89. The Alien Tort Claims Act, 28 U.S.C. §1350, allows aliens to sue for torts committed in violation of the law of nations, international law or a treaty of the United States.

90. The conduct of Saudi Arabia as detailed herein to provide substantial material support, resources and sponsorship for al Qaeda and its acts of international terrorism resulting in the September 11th Attacks constitutes a clear violation of the law of nations and international law, which includes international legal norms prohibiting crimes against humanity, mass murder, genocide, torture, extrajudicial killing, air piracy, financing of terrorism, and terrorism, which can be found in and derived from, among other things, the following conventions, agreements, U.N. declarations and resolutions, and other documents:

- (1) Charter of the International Military Tribunal, Aug. 8, 1945, 59 Stat. 1544, 82 U.N.T.S. 279;
- (2) Allied Control Council Law No. 10 (Dec. 20, 1945);

- (10) Protocol Additional (I) to the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949, and Relating to the Protection of Victims of International Armed Conflict, June 8, 1977, 1125 U.N.T.S. 3;

- (11) Protocol Additional (II) to the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949, and Relating to the Protection of Victims of Non-International Armed Conflicts, June 8, 1977, 1125 U.N.T.S. 609;
- (12) Statute of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia (ICTY), in Report of the Secretary-General pursuant to paragraph 2 of S.C. Res.808, May 3, 1993, U.N. Doc. 8/25704, adopted unanimously by S.C. Res. 827, U.N. SCOR, 48th Sess., 3217th mtg., 16, U.N. Doc. S/PV.3217 (1993);
- (13) The Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Crimes Against International Protected Persons, Including Diplomatic Agents, 28 U.S.T. 1975, T.I.A.S. No. 8532 (1977), implemented in 18 U.S.C. § 1121;
- (14) The General Assembly Resolutions on Measures to Prevent International Terrorism, G.A. Res. 40/61 (1985) and G.A. Res. 42/159 (1987); and
- (15) The Convention on the High Seas, April 29, 1958, arts. 14-22 (piracy), 13 U.S.T. 2312, 450 U.N.T.S. 11.

91. Saudi Arabia's conduct was a substantial cause of the September 11th Attacks and the plaintiffs' injuries, deaths and resulting damages.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs pray that judgment(s) for relief in the form of an award or awards of monetary damages for personal injury, wrongful death and other appropriate relief be entered on their third cause of action in favor of the plaintiffs individually and as estate representatives and against the defendant Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, with separate awards for each plaintiff, where appropriate, plus interest, costs, punitive damages, treble damages, attorney's fees, and such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
